The Tribal Court of the Pueblo of Isleta shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all actions arising under this Code, including any foreclosure and eviction actions arising on lands located within the exterior boundaries of the Pueblo of Isleta.

Section 2. Limited Waiver of Sovereign Immunity.

The Pueblo hereby authorizes a limited waiver of immunity from suit, with respect to specific controversies or claim described in this Code that may arise out of or relate to the Pueblo's obligations under a mortgage or lease entered into by the Pueblo under a mortgage assumption pursuant to Article III, Section 1(b) or Section 7(a)(3) of this Code. In connection with such limited waiver, the Pueblo consents solely to the jurisdiction of the Isleta Pueblo Tribal Courts with respect to (a) actions in equity brought by any party to such mortgage or lease seeking specific performance of any of the Pueblo's express obligations thereunder and (b) actions at law for actual damages which shall consist exclusively for remaining sums secured by a mortgage. This waiver of immunity is not intended, or shall it be construed (a) to extend to any claim for punitive or compensatory damages, (b) to waive the Pueblo's immunity from suit for any other purpose or with respect to any controversy, claim, or other matter not specifically mentioned in this Code, or (c) to extend to the benefit of any person other than the parties to a mortgage or lease or their successors or assigns. Section 1. Pre-Foreclosure Notice.

- a. Upon the default of the Mortgagor(s) and prior to instituting foreclosure proceedings, the Mortgagee shall notify the Pueblo or its Designated Housing Department or Entity in writing of its intention to pursue foreclosure. Such notice must be hand-delivered or sent by certified mail to the Governor of the Pueblo or the Executive Director of the Pueblo's Designated Housing Department or Entity.
- b. Upon such notice, and upon the expiration of any applicable cure period provided Lessee under a mortgage or security instrument, the Lessor or its Designated Housing Department or Entity shall have the right of first refusal to acquire the Leasehold Estate (subject to all valid liens and encumbrances) prior to the commencement of foreclosure proceedings.
- c. The right of first refusal shall be exercised by notice to the Lender within thirty (30) days from receipt of the Lender's written notice.

Section 2. Mortgage Foreclosure Proceedings.

In the event of default of the Mortgagor(s), and upon expiration of any applicable cure periods under a Mortgage and expiration of the Lessor's first right of refusal in the preceding section, the Mortgagee or its successors and assigns, may commence a Mortgage foreclosure proceeding in the Tribal Court as follows:

(a) By filing a verified complaint:

- (1) Citing authority for jurisdiction of the Tribal Court;
- (2) Naming the Mortgagor(s) and each record owner claiming through the Mortgagor(s) subsequent to the recording of the Mortgage, including each

- Subordinate Lienholder (except the Pueblo with respect to a claim for a Tribal tax on the Mortgaged property), as a defendant;

- (b) By obtaining a summons, issued as in other cases, requiring the Mortgagor(s) and each other person or entity claiming through the Mortgagor as defendants to appear for a trial upon the complaint on a date and time specified in the summons, and filing a copy of such summons with the Tribal Court.

Section 3. Service of Process and Procedures.

The laws of the Pueblo governing services of process and all other matters relating to the conduct of Tribal Court proceedings shall apply to any Mortgage Foreclosure Proceeding pursuant to this Code.

Section 4. Dismissal of Foreclosure upon Payment by Mortgagor.

- a. The foreclosure proceeding shall be dismissed if the borrower, before judgment, tenders to the Mortgagee or its successors or assigns payment of the total amount required to be tendered, including costs of the filing of a civil action.
- b. Notice of tender. To invoke this section, the Mortgagor must tender payment to the Mortgagee or its successors or assigns and file with the Court a notice of tender, indicating that the Mortgagor is tendering the amount described below.
- c. Amount required to be tendered. The amount tendered shall consist of the following:
 - (i) Arrearage. The arrearage amount shall be the sum of the monthly payments missed up to and including the date of the tender.
 - (ii) Costs and fees. Reasonable costs and fees, including attorneys fees, determined by the Court, but in no event shall they exceed costs actually incurred.
 - (iii) Acceleration clauses prohibited. Under no circumstances may the amount required to be tendered include any amounts due pursuant to an acceleration clause. This shall not prohibit the Mortgagee from charging late fees.
- d. Disputes regarding cost. Where the Mortgagor and Mortgagee or its successors and assigns are unable to agree on reasonable costs and fees, the Mortgagor shall nonetheless file its notice of tender and tender payment of costs and fees to the Court, indicating that this amount is disputed. The Mortgagee shall file a fee petition with the Court within five (5) business days of the filing of the notice of tender. The Court shall stay the proceedings for no longer than twenty (20) days pending resolution of the dispute.

- e. Dismissal of stay. Where the court's determination of reasonable costs and fees exceeds the amount tendered, the stay shall be lifted if the Mortgagor fails to file a revised notice of tender.

Section 5. Cure of Default by Subordinate Lienholder.

Prior to the entry of a judgment of foreclosure of a Mortgage pursuant to this Code, any Mortgagor or any Subordinate Lienholder may cure the default(s) under the Mortgage. Any Subordinate Lienholder who has cured a default shall thereafter have included in its lien the amount of all payments made by such Subordinate Lienholder to cure such default(s), plus interest on such amounts at the rate stated in the promissory note evidencing the subordinate lien.

Section 6. Power of the Tribal Court.

If the alleged default(s) have not been cured, judgment shall be entered:

- (b) assigning such Mortgaged property to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's successor or assignee and order sale of the residential property, or of a subset of the property that will suffice to satisfy the judgment. The Mortgagee must ensure that the price for which the property is sold is commercially reasonable. If the sales price is greater than the amount of the judgment, then the Mortgagee shall provide the difference to the Mortgagor within ten days of the Mortgagee's receipt of the money.

Section 7. Right of First Refusal During Foreclosure.

- a. The Pueblo shall have the right of first refusal regarding all property to be sold pursuant to these foreclosure proceedings.
 - 1. Notice to the Pueblo. Upon commencement of judicial foreclosure proceedings, the Mortgagee or its successors or assigns shall give written notice by certified mail, of these proceedings to the Pueblo.
 - 2. Right to conduct an appraisal. The Pueblo may conduct an appraisal of the property during or immediately after the foreclosure process. If the property in question is occupied, the Pueblo will make all reasonable efforts to respect the privacy of the homeowner, but the homeowner may not unreasonably interfere with the Pueblo's right to conduct the appraisal.
 - 3. Exercising the right to purchase after foreclosure. Upon entry of an order of foreclosure, a copy of the court order shall be served on the Office of the Governor or Housing Department or Entity, or on another agent designated by the Isleta Tribal Council to receive such notice. Within twenty (20) working days of the service of the order, the Pueblo may provide written notice to the Mortgagee or its successors or assigns that the Pueblo elects to purchase the residential property for the amount of the judgment, or for some other amount agreed upon by the Pueblo and the Mortgagee. At the same time the Pueblo provides such notice to the Mortgagee, or at some other time agreed upon by the Pueblo and the Mortgagee, the Pueblo must tender payment. If the amount paid is less than the commercially reasonable price of the house, the Pueblo will pay the difference to the Mortgagor. If the Pueblo does not exercise its right to purchase the property within twenty days of the date of service of the court order, the Pueblo will be deemed to have waived its right of first refusal.

- b. The term "Pueblo" as used in this Section shall mean "the Pueblo or its Designated Housing Department or Entity".

Article IV - Eviction Procedures

Section 1. Purpose.

The purpose of this Article is to prescribe procedures relating to evictions in connection with leases, subleases or other land assignments or interests made by the Pueblo, the Pueblo's Designated Housing Department or Entity or any owner of land or leasehold interest.

Section 2. Unlawful Detainer.

A Tenant or other occupier of land or a beneficial interest in Trust Land or Restricted Land subject to a Mortgage or Lease shall be guilty of unlawful detainer if such person shall continue in occupancy of such property under any of the following situations:

 - (2) If such person has entered onto or remains on the real property of another without the permission of the owner and without having any substantial claim under a Lease or title to such property;
 - (3) After the Lessor has terminated such person's tenancy pursuant to the Lessor's procedures; or
 - (4) After a Mortgagor's interest in Trust Land or Restricted Land has been foreclosed in a Mortgage Foreclosure Proceeding in the Tribal Court.
- (b) After having received at least seven (7) days notice of termination and notice to vacate the premises, the Tenant or occupier remains in possession of such property contrary to the terms of the notice as follows:
- (1) When such person has received notice: (i) that he or she is in default in the payment of ground or unit rent; and (ii) requiring him or her to either pay such rent or surrender possession of the occupied property and such person has not either surrendered possession of such property or paid the rent within the time period provided in such notice; or

- (2) When such person shall continue to fail to keep or perform any condition or covenant of any Lease or other use agreement under which the property is held after he or she has been given notice to comply with such condition or covenant or else to surrender the property; or
- (3) When such person continues to commit or to permit Waste upon or maintain a Nuisance upon the occupied property after having been given notice to either cease such Waste or maintenance of Nuisance or to surrender the property; or
- (4) When such person violates a material covenant of any Lease designed to protect the health and safety of persons.

Section 3. Procedures for Service of Notice.

- (a) Notices required or authorized under Section 2 of this Article shall be given in accordance with established Tribal Court rules and procedures or policies of the Pueblo's Designated Housing Department or Entity. In the absence of such rules and procedures, notices shall be given in writing by either:
 - (1) Delivering a copy personally to the Tenant or occupier or to any adult members of his or her family residing on the Leased or Mortgaged property; or
 - (2) Posting said notice in a conspicuous place near the entrance to said property, and by sending an additional copy to the Tenant or occupier by certified mail, return receipt requested, properly addressed, postage prepaid.
- (b) Proof of service by either of the above methods may be made by affidavit of any adult person stating that he or she has complied fully with the requirements of either of these two methods of service.

Section 4. Complaint and Summons.

The Lessor or the Mortgagee (including its successors or assigns) shall commence an action for eviction by filing with the Tribal Court, in writing, the following documents:

- (a) A complaint, signed by the Lessor, the Mortgagee (or its successors or assigns), or an agent or attorney on their behalf including the following:
 - (1) Citing authority for jurisdiction of the Tribal Court;
 - (2) If the property is mortgaged, naming the Mortgagor(s) and each record owner claiming through the Mortgagor(s) subsequent to the recording of the Mortgage, including each Subordinate Lienholder (except the Pueblo with respect to a claim for a Tribal tax on the property subject to the Mortgage), as a defendant;

- (3) Describing the property subject to the Mortgage or Lease;
- (4) Stating the facts concerning (i) the execution of any Lease and/or the Mortgage; (ii) the recording of any Mortgage; and (iii) the facts upon which he or she seeks to recover; and
- (5) Stating any claim for damages or compensation due from the persons to be evicted.

- (b) A copy of the summons, issued in accordance with established Tribal Court rules and procedures. In the absence of such rules and procedures for the issuance of a summons, the summons shall require defendants to appear for trial upon the complaint on a date and time specified in the summons. The trial date specified in the summons shall be no less than six (6) nor more than twenty (20) days from the date of service of the summons and complaint. The summons must notify the defendants that judgment will be taken against them in accordance with the terms of the complaint unless they file with the court an answer and appear for trial at the time, date and place specified in the summons.

Section 5. Service of Summons and Complaint.

A copy of the summons and complaint shall be served upon the defendants in the manner provided by the Tribal Court rules for service of process in civil matters. In the absence of such Tribal Court rules, the summons and complaint shall be served by one of the two methods provided in Section 3 of this Article.

Section 6. Power of the Tribal Court.

1a The only issue on an action for eviction shall be the right of actual possession. A lender who has foreclosed on a leasehold estate shall be deemed to have the right to actual possession. The merits of ownership of land interest shall be an issue to be determined by the traditional laws of the Pueblo. An action for eviction may not be brought in connection with any other action, nor may it be made the subject of any set off or counter claim.

b The Tribal Court shall enter a Writ of Restitution if:

- (1) Notice of suit and trial is given by service of summons and complaint in accordance with the procedures provided herein; and
- (2) The Tribal Court:
 - (a) finds that the occupier of the property subject to the Mortgage or Lease is guilty of an act of unlawful detainer; or
 - (b) determines that the Tenant failed to respond to the complaint.

1c Upon issuance of a Writ of Restitution the Tribal Court shall have the authority to enter against the defendants a judgment for the following: (1) back rent, unpaid utilities, and any charges due the Lessor under any lease or occupancy agreement; (2) any and all amounts secured by the Mortgage that are due the Mortgagee (or its successors or assigns); (3) damages caused by the defendants to the property other than ordinary wear and tear; and (4) costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in bringing suit.

(d) At the hearing where the eviction is ordered, the Court shall inform the defendant that if he/she does not vacate the premises voluntarily by the effective date, he/she will be subject to forcible eviction, and his/her property will be subject to storage, sale and disposal as set forth in Section 9 below.

Section 7. Enforcement.

Upon issuance of a Writ of Restitution, Tribal law enforcement officers shall within five days enforce the Writ of Restitution by removing the defendants and their personal property from the property which is unlawfully occupied, and levy damages and costs incurred by the Police Department in such removal. In cases involving a Mortgagee (or its successors or assigns), the Writ of Restitution shall be enforced no later than sixty (60) days after the date of service of the summons and complaint, subject to Section 8 of this Article.

Section 8. Continuance in Cases Involving the Mortgagee.

Except by agreement of all parties, there shall be no continuances in cases involving the Mortgagee (or its successors or assigns) which will interfere with the requirement that the Writ of Restitution be enforced not later than sixty (60) days from the date of service of the summons and complaint.

Section 9. Storage of Property.

Following forcible eviction of the defendant and/or other occupants, the former occupant's personal property shall be stored by the Lessor or owner of the premises for at least thirty (30) days, either on the premises or at another suitable location. In order to reclaim their property, the former occupants shall pay the reasonable costs of its removal and storage. If they do not pay such costs within thirty (30) days, the Lessor or owner is authorized to sell the property in order to recover these costs. The Lessor or owner shall provide the evicted occupants with pertinent information concerning the sale, including the time, date and location. Any proceeds from the sale in excess of the storage and removal costs shall be remitted to the former occupants. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the former occupants from reclaiming property remaining after the sale if they can arrange to do so in a manner satisfactory to the Lessor or owner.
